Details:

These special rates require flexibility in scheduling and willingness to schedule with a substitute therapist as needed. BDI has a very collaborative team and therapists have access to your child's chart where goals, strategies, and methods are recorded and referenced. Missed sessions must be rescheduled within 14 days of the expiration date of the package. Refunds cannot be provided for missed sessions. It is the responsibility of the parent to reschedule make-up sessions.

The monthly fee will apply during the holiday season as well. Sessions are easily rescheduled during these times as children have more availability for rescheduling as needed when schools are closed. Rarely do families ever "lose" a session.

BDI will not be able to submit to insurance, prior dates on your behalf nor provide a refund for services provided under this private pay plan. Caregivers may, however, elect to terminate this agreement at any point and future dates would be eligible for insurance submission through BDI after coverage is verified.

A reserved weekly time on a therapist's schedule requires a minimum of one time per week attendance. If you wish to mix/match service types or therapists or vary frequency, you may schedule your appointment up to 7 days in advance.

*This private pay discount program is specific to the therapy that your child is currently receiving at BDI. This estimate pertains to therapy services only. Additional services may be recommended and would incur additional costs to be estimated at that time. Should your child need to add additional therapy services with BDI, a new disclosure will be provided to you that would outline those services. If an evaluation is required for new services, an additional $200 charge would also be collected in advance. Our NPI#1376530055 TaxID#: 36-4434622.

Please check to indicate your understanding:

- These special rates require flexibility in scheduling and willingness to schedule with a substitute therapist as needed.
- The monthly payment will be charged to the credit card on file (Autopay) on the same day each month.
